

KASTURI LECTURE SERIES

LECTURE 2

The second lecture of the Kasturi lecture series for the academic year 2020-21 was held on Friday 30th July 2021 through the online platform of google meet. The resource person for the lecture was Mr. Shashank Bhosale who is an environment educator. He spoke on the topic 'Carving your own path: Journey of an environment educator'. Mr. Shashank Bhosale is a truly inspiring young photographer, award winning film maker and science educator. In his lecture he spoke on how he followed his passion by giving up a lucrative job in the IT industry to don the hat of a science communicator onboard the science Express Train which is a unique science exhibition mounted on a 16-coach AC train. He also spoke about the various awareness campaigns he was involved in.
