Report: The Post Graduate Department of Commerce organized an Orientation programme for the parents and students of M.Com Part I & Part II on 29th August 2022 in M.Com classroom. The objective of the programme was to orient newly admitted students of M.Com Part-I and also to provide details to the parents regarding the study tour organized for M.Com students in December, 2022. The programme was compered by Ms. Haneen Khan, a student of M.Com Part II.

The orientation programme commenced with a welcome address by the Principal Prof. Dr. Manasvi M. Kamat. The Principal introduced M.Com programme mentor Dr. Sancheliana Faria and M.Com faculty Asst. Prof. Mr. Suraj P. Tuyekar, Asst. Prof. Mr. Pranit S. Naik, and Asst. Prof. Ms. Pradnya P. Chari to the parents. The principal welcomed the M.Com Part I and Part II students and their parents and also mentioned about the difference between B.Com learning and M.Com learning. The difference lies in the discipline, way of learning, culture, and overall environment of programme. The Principal emphasized on taking benefit of various courses, seminars, workshops etc. organized free of cost by the M.Com department for overall growth of students. Moreover, encouraged students to read newspapers and in order to keep updated with the latest happenings. Principal informed parents that how the study tour can benefit students to get the real world exposure and learn them to be more responsible. Study tours give a learning experience to the students. Further mentioned to the parents the importance of developing a bond of friendship with their child.

Mr. Suraj P. Tuyekar, Assistant professor of Commerce, gave an overview of the M.Com Programme. He mentioned about the different activities to be conducted by the M.Com department for the Academic Year 2022-23. Various activities include workshop, seminars, webinars, and guest lectures. He updated the parents as well as the students on changes in the M.Com syllabus for academic year 2022-23. More focus has been given to research work which includes dissertation as per new syllabus.

Then parents were asked to share their views and suggestions if any regarding the study tour going to Kullu-Manali-Chandigarh-Manikaran -Amritsar from 7th to 15th December 2022. The Principal and M.Com Programme mentor Dr. Sancheliana Faria along with the faculty members Asst. Prof. Suraj P. Tuyekar answered all the queries raised by the parents. Mr. Jayesh Bhagat a student from M.Com Part II gave the feedback on M.Com programme stating that the faculties are teaching very nicely and they have really learnt a lot through lot of academic and extracurricular activities conducted by the M.Com department. The vote of thanks was proposed by M.Com Programme Mentor Dr. Sancheliana Faria. In total 27 students of M.Com Part One and Part Two , 12 parents, and three M.Com faculties were present for the orientation programme. The Programme ended at 11.00 am by singing the National Anthem.

- Remarks of the Coordinator: The Orientation programme was a success as it was attended by the students and the parents of M.Com Part one and M.Com Part II and all the queries of parents regards academics and tour was discussed at length.
