- Report in Brief:

The Sociology Department hosted a guest lecture on the theme "My Legal Rights" for the college students on October 15, 2022. The programme was coordinated by Asst. Prof. Ms. Gulshan Mullah. The resource person was Advocate Emidio. A. D. Pinho. Vice Principal Dr. Ashish M Joshi, welcomed the gathering. Dr. Sonal Thakker, Head, Department of Sociology, introduced the resource person. Ms. Ankita Bist, a Second-Year B.A. student, served as the event's host.

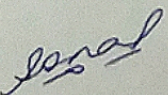

A. D. Pinho discussed about the protection of women in society from sexual assault and other forms of sexual violence. He emphasised the rise in sexually charged incidents involving close ties. He made the students aware of cases of kidnapping and how one can lend in trouble without knowledge of the laws.

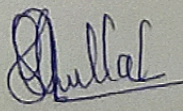

Adv. Pinho is a member of the Indian Child Abuse, Neglect, and Child Labor (ICANCL) Group, a legally recognised organisation, and the 2014 recipient of the National Award for Child Welfare, given on November 14th by the late Shri. Pranab Mukherjee. Pinho is an initiator of the non-profit organisation named Stop Child Abuse Now (SCAN-Goa).

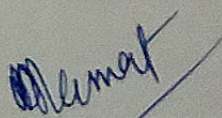

At the end of the session Asst. Professor Jessy Coutinho proposed the Vote of thanks.

Remarks of the Coordinator:

The event was a huge success. The students gave it their all at the event and showed extreme interest during the talk and requested to host it again in the next semester.
