Dear Readers,

We have come to the end of this glorious academic year which was filled with a myriad of activities both academic and extracurricular. Our teachers and students have worked hard and shone brilliantly in the activities they undertook.

With NEP on our doorstep, we are getting ready to start our admissions to welcome our fresh batch of students to the new academic year.

I wish my readers a happy and wonderful summer ahead. Keep cool and hydrated until the monsoons arrive in June.

Happy reading.
