

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
COURSE OUTCOMES: B.A. SOCIOLOGY

B.A. Semester I DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:
Introduction to Sociology Course Code: SOC 101

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO 1: Gather knowledge on the subject matter of Sociology.

CO 2: Understand the necessity of mutual cooperation in society.

CO 3: Get acquainted with the basic concepts used in Sociology.

CO 4: Gain an in depth knowledge of the sociological perspectives.

B.A. Semester II DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:
Introduction to Sociology Course Code: SOC 102

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO1: Get familiar with the various social institutions.

CO2: Understand the hierarchical nature of stratification system.

CO3: Get sensitised to the existence of inequalities among various groups.

CO4: Analyse the process of social change that modify social structures.

B.A. Semester I GENERIC ELECTIVE (GE): Crime and Society
Course Code: SOG 101

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO1: Gain an in depth understanding of the subject of Criminology.

CO2: Comprehend the theoretical explanations of crime from different perspectives.

CO3: Understand the motivation of criminal behaviour and societal pressure.

CO4: Analyse conception of punishment and justify correction in contemporary times.

B.A. Semester II GENERIC ELECTIVE (GE): Religion and Society
Course Code: SOG 102

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO 1: Gain an understanding of the origin of religion and its basic components.

CO 2: Understand the forms of religion and various theoretical perspectives.

CO 3: Analyse the contemporary issues such as secularism and secularisation.

CO 4: Develop critical thinking on issues of communalism and fundamentalism.

B.A. Semester III

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:

Society in India

Course Code: SOC 103

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO 1: Comprehend the shaping of Indian society from Indus Valley Civilisation to contemporary times.

CO 2: Understand the workings of social institutions in India.

CO 3: Analyse the process of change and its impact on the older social institutions.

CO 4: Critically assess the significance of social movements.

B.A. Semester IV

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:

Society and Culture in Goa

Course Code: SOC 104

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO 1: Comprehend the shaping of Goan society, the land and its people.

CO 2: Understand the workings of socio-cultural institutions in Goa.

CO 3: Analyse the process of change and its impact on demographic profile' migration issues, educational scenario and socio-cultural dynamics in Goan society.

CO 4: Critically assess the issues and concerns pertaining to environment, tourism and social mobilisations.

B.A. Semester III

GENERIC ELECTIVE (GE): Sociology of Health

Course Code: SOG 103

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Apply key sociological concepts to explain the social distribution of health, healthcare and disease.

CO 2: Analyze disease and illness experiences using a variety of social theories, thus enhancing the exploration of a topic or problem in public health.

CO 3: Engage in debates related to the sociology of health and illnesses

CO 4: Critically evaluate and assess public health policies.

B.A. Semester IV GENERIC ELECTIVE (GE): Gender and Violence

Course Code: SOC 101

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Understand how the concepts of sex and gender culturally interpreted and socially constructed.

CO 2: Develop awareness on some of the factors that contribute to gender-based violence and its consequences on women.

CO 3: Understand various issues relating to gender and negative portrayal of women in mass media.

CO 4: Participate in the ongoing debates of gender and get sensitized to various discriminatory practices against women.

B.A. Semester III SKILL ENHANCEMENT COURSE (SEC):
Social Skills and Etiquettes Course Code; SOS 103

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with the subject as a necessity in the changing global scenario.

CO 2: Understand the significance of soft skills and etiquettes in social interaction.

CO 3: Acquire requisite soft skills and etiquettes which will enable their adjustment and adaptation in personal and public spaces.

CO 4: Gain knowledge of corporate culture and the requisite interpersonal skills.

B.A. Semester IV SKILL ENHANCEMENT COURSE (SEC):
Corporate Interpersonal Skills Course Code: SOS 104

After completing the course the student will be able to:

CO 1: Explore career prospects and seek gainful employment.

CO 2: Acquire relevant skills and understand importance of good grooming and conduct.

CO3: Adopt as well as adapt to the demands of the modern work culture.

CO 4: Make the transition easier from one regional setting to a larger corporate culture.

B.A. (General & Honours) Semester V

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:

Foundations of Sociological Thought Course Code: SOC 105

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with the background that led to the growth of Sociology as a distinct subject.

CO 2: Understand the life and works of Auguste Comte, considered as the founding father of the discipline, as well as the other pioneers such as Herbert Spencer, Emile Durkheim, Karl Marx and Max Weber.

CO 3: Gain an in depth knowledge of thinkers and their theories.

CO 4: Identify the macro perspectives in Sociology.

B.A. (General & Honours) Semester VI

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:

Contemporary Sociological Theories

Course Code: SOC 108

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with the background that led to the growth of contemporary sociological theories.

CO 2: Understand the diverse theoretical developments in the 20th Century.

CO 3: Gain an in depth knowledge of various sociological perspectives.

CO 4: Identify the micro perspectives, methodology and conclusions of these diverse perspectives.

B.A. Semester V (Honours) DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:

Sociology of Gender

Course Code: SOC 106

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with the background that led to the growth of Sociology of Gender as a distinct subject.

CO 2: Understand the basic concepts and the changing profile of Indian women.

CO 3: Critically assess the demographic profile and gender gap of women.

CO 4: Identify the existence of gender inequality in the economic, political, social and legal spheres.

B.A. Semester V (Honours) DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:

Social Research Methods

Course Code: SOC 107

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Understand the basic concepts and methodological framework used in social research.

CO 2: Select an area of study, formulate a research design and write an effective research proposal.

CO 3: Gather the requisite data for research, identify the techniques of data analysis and write a research report.

CO 4: Independently carry out minor research projects or become a research assistant.

B.A. Semester VI (Honours) DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:
Urban Society in India Course Code: SOD 109

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with India's urban history and the dynamic nature of urban society in India and Goa.

CO 2: Gain knowledge of the basic concepts, theories and developmental changes in urban societies.

CO 3: Identify the contemporary social problems of slums, waste disposal and so forth.

CO 4: Understand the need and significance of urban planning.

B.A. Semester VI (Honours) DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC CORE (DSC) COURSE:
Environmental Issues in India Course Code: SOC 110

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Discern the nature and magnitude of environmental issues in India.

CO 2: Understand the significance of waste management.

CO 3: Examine the consequences related to unplanned development.

CO 4: Develop strategies towards sustainable development.

B.A. Semester V (General & Honours)

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC ELECTIVE (DSE) COURSE:

Indian Society: Issues and Concerns Course Code: SOD 101

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with social problems in India, and approaches to study social problems.

CO 2: Identify the existence of social issues and be proactive citizens.

CO 3: Be empowered to deal with the current challenges.

B.A. Semester V (General & Honours)

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC ELECTIVE (DSE) COURSE: Rural Society in India

Course Code: SOD102

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with India's rural background, basic nature of rural society and village structure in India.

CO 2: Gain knowledge of the rural economy, its land tenure and land reform system.

CO 3: Identify the significance of peasant movements, green revolution and rural development programmes.

CO 4: Understand the challenges facing the Indian villages and the need for amelioration of rural people.

B.A. Semester V (General & Honours)

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC ELECTIVE (DSE) COURSE:

Sociology of Migration

Course Code: SOD 103

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get acquainted with the process of migration as a global phenomena.

CO 2: Understand the typology and theories of migration and basic motivators of migration.

CO 3: Assess the impact of migration on demographic profile of sending and receiving society.

CO 4: Critically analyse contemporary issues and debates around migration.

B.A. Semester VI (General & Honours)

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC ELECTIVE (DSE) COURSE: Sociology of Tribes

Course Code: SOD 104

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Understand the comprehensive profile and diversity of tribal people.

CO 2: Familiarise them with groups living on the periphery of society.

CO 3: To understand the problems faced by tribal people.

CO 4: Critically analyse the various debates and assess the impact of welfare policies and constitutional safeguards.

CO 5: Serve as change agents in governmental and non- governmental organizations.

B.A. Semester VI (General & Honours)

DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC ELECTIVE (DSE) COURSE:

Sociology of Marginalised Groups

Course Code: SOD 105

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Get familiarised with the socio-cultural interpretations of marginalised groups in society.

CO 2: Get aware and be sensitised to the ongoing discrimination of the marginalised groups.

CO 3: Understand the various issues pertaining to marginalised groups and their sociological significance.

CO 4: Critically analyse the various debates and assess the impact of legal interventions for social change.

B.A. Semester VI (Honours) DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC ELECTIVE (DSE) COURSE:

Gender and Society: Some Emerging Issues

Course Code: SOD 106

After completing the course the students will be able to:

CO 1: Develop sensitivity to gender related issues in India.

CO 2: Create an aware of legislative measures aimed at empowering women.

CO 3: Assess the magnitude of the problems related to gender.

CO4: Critically evaluate and analyse policies for welfare of women.