Library as a Learning Resource

MES College Library established in 1972 is named after Dr.Tristao Braganza De Cunha, a renowned freedom fighter from Goa. The library is housed in a spacious separate building with a total carpet area of 607.6 sqmts. The library has a rare collection of books in French, Portuguese and English which have historical importance. These were donated by the relatives of the great freedom fighter Dr T B Cunha after whom the Library has been named. This library is automated using New Gen lib Library Management Software (Helium version 3.1.4) devised by Verus Solutions Hyderabad. The Library Building is covered with CCTV cameras located at vantage points in and around the Library.
