WhatsApp group

With many students graduating from MES College over the years, it is a challenge to get them all on a single online platform. Since WhatsApp has a limit of members in a group, you are requested to join any one of the groups from the links mentioned below. Please note, if you are already part of any one of the groups, you need not join the others as it will serve you no purpose and all communication will be duplicated to you. This group intends to bring all the former students on one platform for easy communication and to continue their association with the college as an esteemed Alumni. With a defined objective of the group and as civilized citizens, all members of the group will use this platform to communicate matters pertaining to MES College alone.
