Report on International Yoga Day

The NCC cadets actively participated in International Yoga Day which was organised to spread awareness among the people about the benefits of practicing Yoga for good health and mind. The NCC Cadets spread the message of healthy lifestyle by taking an online pledge that everyone will be gentle towards one & will do Yoga for better health. The Cadets also made videos in which they demonstrated various Asanas for physical health, mental health & peace.

Through the videos they showed that Yoga is the best method to make the mind stress free and relaxed. The Cadets performed yoga Asanas with their family members on the theme 'Yoga from Home, Yoga with Family'. An online yoga quiz competition was also held which witnessed participation of the Cadets of all the units. A virtual yoga session on the topic 'Yoga for well being' was organised in which Mr. Venkatesh Malgimani, a renowned scholar of Yoga shared many tips to improve concentration & mental well being through Yoga Asanas. He spoke on the benefits of Yoga and taught 'Asanas' to improve concentration and mental health. The cadets performed various Asanas practically.

Pledge was taken by principal and faculty to abide by responsibilities of citizen as given in Constitution of India. Fundamental rights of Indian constitution were also read by the Dept of Political Science. On this occasion there were many activities organised like preamble reading, poster making, essay writing, reading of fundamental duties. NSS program officer Mr. Satish Gangavati had organised Online poster making competition in which the volunteers were instructed to use the software such as Canva, Photoshop, coral draw and come up with a poster based on theme "Constitution of India ". A total of 11 Volunteer's had participated for this activity. Apart from this preamble reading was also carried in which the NSS Volunteers were tutored on preamble and were told to put that as their WhatsApp status to spread the awareness on constitution of India. A total of 20 volunteers have participated for reading preamble. Student and faculty participated enthusiastically during the activity which helped them to understand the importance of Constitution. Participants were encouraged to take similar activities on their own to spread knowledge about Constitution of India.

- ii. Reading of Preamble and uploading on social media platforms like Instagram, Facebook and WhatsApp:

NSS unit of MES College of Arts and Commerce, Zuarinagar Goa organised reading the Preamble to the Constitution of India on occasion of 'Constitution Day' on 26/11/2020 by online mode through action videos uploading on whatsapp. Around 13 volunteers took part the pledge. The NSS volunteers participated in reading the Preamble to the Indian Constitution. This activity helped students to understand the constitutional and human values present in the Indian Constitution which attempts to make India a democratic and inclusive nation.

iii. Dissemination of Public Messages on Fundamental Duties:

NSS Unit of M.E.S College of Arts and Commerce Zuarinagar, celebrated Constitution Day on 26th November 2020 by organising various activities. One of the activities was, making a 30 second video of Fundamental Duties prescribed in the Indian Constitution.

In this activity, volunteers had to make a 30 seconds video explaining any one fundamental duty prescribed in the Indian Constitution. The rationale behind organising this activity was making students aware of their Fundamental Duties as citizens of India.

After making these videos, volunteers had to post these videos on social media platforms for creating awareness in the public. 16 volunteers from B.A. as well as B.Com participated in this activity. NSS Program Officer Ms. Madhuri Marathe coordinated this activity.

iv. Poster making on Indian Constitution:

NSS unit of MES College of Arts and Commerce, Zuarinagar Goa organised poster making competition on occasion of 'Constitution Day' on 26/11/2020 at 8.00 am to 3.00 pm by online mode through whatsapp. The students were told to upload the poster or send through mail. Around 33 volunteers took part for the competition. This competition was conducted for the NSS volunteers to enhance the knowledge and information about Indian Constitution and to spread awareness by mobilizing the youth. Poster showcased the creativity of the students. The volunteers came up with very artistic and brilliant ideas. NSS volunteers sketched different pictures, message related to Indian Constitution in the posters or chart. The activity made the NSS volunteers to understand and revisit the Human Values and Democratic Values which are enshrined in Indian Constitution.

v. Essay competition on making of Indian Constitution:

On the occasion of celebration of Constitution Day on 26th November 2020 the NSS Unit of M.E.S. College organised essay competition on the topic "Making of Indian Constitution". The volunteers were asked to write an essay pertaining to the main theme of the competition.

The volunteers displayed their knowledge on Indian constitution in English as well as Hindi. Total of 43 volunteers participated in the Essay writing competition. The fundamental idea behind the competition was to understand the process of making Indian Constitution. Indian constitution has been a result of long history and struggle. Students learnt various human values like liberty, equality, justice, fraternity and democracy which are enshrined in Indian Constitution to create an inclusive and harmonious society.

vi. E-poster competitor on Indian Constitution:

NSS Unit conducted an E-Poster Competition for NSS Volunteers to commemorate Constitution Day. NSS Unit of M.E.S College of Arts and Commerce Zuarinagar, celebrated Constitution Day on 26th November 2020 by organising various activities. One of the activities was, making a E- Poster on Indian Constitution.

In this activity, volunteers had to design and distribute the e-poster and banners on social media on Indian Constitution. The motive behind organizing the above event was to make volunteers aware about the Indian Constitution.

After making the e-poster, volunteers had to post it on social media platforms for creating awareness in the public. 11 volunteers from B.A , B.Com as well as BCA participated in this activity. As the students are on social media its important to educate them in a manner, they absorb the idea. The competition would make students to understand the glorious political, social and human values enshrined in Indian Constitution. Program Officer Ms. Sandhya Ghogale coordinated this activity.
