REQUEST FOR SCRIBER – MISS ASHLY THOMAS, BA 1ST YEAR

Dear sir,

It has been experienced, as well as brought out by the school too that despite knowing the subject, she is not able to write in commensurate with her age and class. She was therefore taken to IPHB, Bambolim Goa for the assessment-cum-recommendation.

In view of the aforesaid, it is requested that the matter be taken up with higher authorities for perusing of scriber for the fourth commencing session.

Would be obliged for the same,

Thanking you and regards

Yours faithfully

(Thomas Philip)

- (c) The Chief Conductor shall make seating arrangement in a separate room preferably on the ground floor for such candidate and the scribe.
- (d) The scribe shall be paid an honorarium by the College / University as the case may be, as prescribed by the University from time to time. However, a scribe may render his / her service free of cost.
- (e) The candidate shall not be charged towards the fee of the scribe.
- (f) The candidate as defined in b(i) above shall be given 50% additional time to answer the examination than the normal time prescribed for that paper, subject to a minimum of 30 minutes duration.

OA-12.41 (effective from 27th March, 2018)

A.

The Chief Conductor is authorized to appoint a scribe / reader / lab-assistant at the University / College examination and grant such other facilities for a candidate who is unable to write the answer scripts on medical grounds or due to disability, if so desired by the candidate, as below :

- (i) To any candidate who has disability of upto 40% or more, duly certified by the competent medical authority.
- (ii) In case of sudden illness / accident / injury rendering the candidate unable to write / read the examination, provided it is certified by the medical officer.
- (iii) The candidate may be allowed to meet the scribe / reader / lab-assistant a day before the examination to verify the suitability.
- (iv) In case of emergency, a change in scribe/ reader / lab-assistant may be allowed. The candidate may be allowed to take more than one scribe / reader for writing different language papers.
- (v) The compensatory time not less than twenty (20) minutes per hour be allowed for candidates who use a scribe / reader / lab-assistant in University / College examination.

(vi) The candidates with disability as defined in A(i) & (ii) not availing the facility of scribe / reader / lab-assistant may be allowed fifty (50%) percent compensatory time than the normal duration for each paper, subject to a minimum of thirty (30) minutes duration.

(vii) The candidate shall not be charged any extra fees for availing the facility of scribe/ reader / lab-assistant and assisting devices.

(viii) The scribe / reader / lab-assistant shall be paid an honorarium by the University / College as the case may be and as prescribed by the University from time to time.

(ix) The Chief Conductor shall make separate seating arrangement (separate block) for the candidates using the facility of a scribe / reader / lab-assistant, preferably on the ground floor of the premises.

(x) Candidates may be allowed to use assisting devices like talking calculator in case where calculators are allowed and question paper in enlarged print.

B. The candidates with disability as defined in A (i) are entitled to grace marks to the extent of hundred (100%) percent more than the grace marks allotted generally to the candidates appearing in University / College examination.

C.(i) The candidates with disability as defined in A (i) are exempted from minimum attendance requirement of seventy-five (75%) percent in University / College examination. However, these candidates need to fulfill a minimum attendance requirement of fifty percent (50%) to appear in the examinations.

(ii) If any such candidate needs further exemption in attendance, he / she may forward the case to the University with appropriate supporting medical documents seeking the exemption. Based on the request of the candidate, the Controller of Examinations may decide the extent of further relief in attendance to the applicant.

D.(i) The candidates having disability as defined in A (i) seeking alternative mode of examination / evaluation may be referred to a need-based special Committee of the University consisting of the Controller of Examinations, a Dean of the respective Faculty, and two senior teachers as subject experts.

(ii) The Committee, based on the merit of the case and viability of alternative mode of evaluation / examination shall submit its recommendations to the University for approval and implementation.

(iii) The candidate seeking such a customized mode of examination / evaluation should forward his / her request to the University within one month of commencement of the academic year of the Programme / Course of the University / College.
